Tell Us About You

Why are you running for this office?

I’m running for the San Francisco Democratic County Central Committee, the governing body that sets the agenda for the Democratic Party in our City. The SF DCCC is the platform to bring issues San Franciscans care about to the forefront. I want to be your representative as we set the Democratic agenda for the city and the rest of the country.
What are the top three issues you will work on and how will you implement solutions in a timely manner?

Public Transportation & Traffic:
Increasing ridership in public transportation will work towards decreasing traffic congestion. I believe in a public transportation system that is reliable, clean, and safe. We must invest in our public transportation projects, like building the second Transbay Tube, expanding Muni light rail to the Marina, to the Richmond, and to other major corridors throughout the City.

Housing:
We have a housing shortage in San Francisco. It's important to build enough housing that is affordable for all San Franciscans, present and future. We need to cut bureaucracy and create pathways for future San Franciscans to keep living and thriving in our city. We can do that by building dense housing and ensuring a certain percentage is affordable.

Mental Health Services:
I admire our local leaders who work together to make progress for our most vulnerable populations in our City. I want to commend our Board of Supervisors and Mayor for making a compromise on Mental Health SF. I will advocate to continue to fund more programs to help address our mental health crisis in San Francisco and across our country.

If elected to the DCCC, I will support and endorse fellow leaders who believe in these solutions.

What three endorsements are you most proud of?

What for-profit or non-profit boards do you serve on, including political organizations?

What local and state commissions or policy bodies do you serve on?

I’m an elected Delegate to the California Democratic Party.

Did you support 2014’s Prop G, the anti-speculation tax?

- Yes
- No
Do you identify as an activist?

- Yes
- No

If so, please describe specific accomplishments in your activism. What did you get done, and what was your role?

In college, I fought for college affordability in the University of California system. Throughout my life, I volunteered for countless Democratic candidates on the local, state, and federal level. My degrees of activism range from small gestures to the big efforts.

What communities do you feel you represent in SF and how do those communities hold you accountable?

The Filipino community and the San Francisco community as a whole are important to me. As someone who was born and raised in SOMA, and still live there to this day, I want to ensure that the Filipino community thrives with its residents and its small businesses. I also want to ensure that people who live San Francisco, whether they’re born and raised, lived here a long time, or recently moved in, have the opportunity to stay in the city.

I am held accountable by being able to continue working with those communities, and continuing to have hard conversations to progress the city.
Please list specific ways you have shown up for immigrants at risk of deportation.

I am the son of Filipino immigrants. I know the importance of a thriving immigrant community in San Francisco, and in America. In response to Trump's travel ban in 2017, I stood in solidarity with protesters at San Francisco International Airport and supported the attorneys who worked pro bono and represented immigrants being detained in the airport.

Please list specific ways you have fought against racism and white supremacy.

I volunteered in campaigns where candidates faced against racist candidates, by making phone calls and knocking on doors. One way I’ve fought against racism and white supremacy is ensuring those candidates who embody those characteristics are defeated.

Please give us some examples of situations you’ve encountered where gender and LGBTQ inequity was evident, and what you did or would do to address it?

I don’t hesitate to call out an injustice based on gender or sexual orientation. It’s important to ensure that spaces are made welcoming for all.

In the midst of a homelessness crisis, how can the City and County of San Francisco improve the effectiveness of our city’s homelessness and supportive housing services?

There are multiple solutions to address our homeless crisis in San Francisco:
1. Expand programs like ‘Project Homeless Connect’ to a more permanent fixture
2. Expand public restrooms to open 24/7
3. Build more affordable housing
4. Build more modular housing to allow more efficient construction
5. Increase investment in mental health services
How would you expand checks and balances in regard to Mayoral appointments?

Do you work for the City and County of SF?
- [ ] Yes
- [x] No

Are you a member of a union?
- [ ] Yes
- [x] No

If so, how will you balance accountability to union leadership, workers, and constituents?

Last questions...we promise.

What do you for fun in San Francisco?

I like eating at local food spots in San Francisco. Whether they’re long-time institutions or new pop up restaurants, if I hear they have good food, then I’m there!
Why do you want the League of Pissed Off Voters’ endorsement?

The League of Pissed Off Voters has a long-established voter guide that reaches out and resonates with members of the San Francisco community. I hope that my message and platform resonates with you all and I hope to earn the League’s endorsement.

Is there anything else you want to tell us?

I appreciate you all taking the time to read my questionnaire and I hope to earn the League’s endorsement.
