What are your self care strategies to prevent burnout?

I enjoy spending time with my family and friends. My faith is very important to me and it keeps me grounded when times are difficult.

Priorities

Please list the 3 endorsements you are most proud of

Senator Kamala Harris, San Francisco Firefighters Local 798 (sole), SEIU 1021 (#2)

What are the top three issues you will work on, and how will you implement solutions in a timely manner? (1250 character limit)

Three of the most pressing issues to address as Mayor will be housing affordability, homelessness, and public safety.

My first priority in housing and homelessness is to create an affordable city for ALL of us. I'll protect and expand our affordable and rent-controlled stock, and honor Mayor Lee's commitment to build 5,000 units per year. I'll continue to work with unions to fund and build hundreds of modular homes for homeless people, and build on underutilized sites around the City like the McDonald's on Haight and Stanyan. Finally, we need to keep our communities in San Francisco, and that means securing the right to eviction counsel and building more middle-income units.

San Francisco needs a Mayor who will make our neighborhoods safer—and on issues of public safety, I don't back down. This means confronting the property crime wave, as I've done by working to add more police officers to keep up with our rising population. This means reducing emergency response times, as I did when I fought the ambulance crisis in 2014. And this means crafting smart policy that aligns with our values: Championing our Sanctuary status, implementing systemic reform, and reintegrating people coming out of jail. Just as I've always done.

What for-profit or non-profit boards do you serve on, including political organizations?

San Francisco Democratic County Central Committee (Fundraising Committee)

Some of the things pissed-off voters are watching right now!

- No, I do not plan to sign up for CleanPowerSF

Do you support San Francisco Employees' Retirement System (SFERS) fully divesting from fossil fuels within three years and holding SFERS accountable at the ballot if they do not divest?

- Yes
- No

Do you support the expansion of charter schools (yes/no, explanation if needed)?

No. I'm a proud graduate of Galileo High School, but the fact of the matter is, we need to be focusing more on our public education system in San Francisco and statewide. When the President of the San Francisco NAACP drew our attention to how poorly the San Francisco Unified School District (SFUSD) serves our students of color, it was astonishing how unsurprising it seemed. So no, before we think about expanding charter schools in our city, we need to work on the problems in front of us within our public school system.

Do you support the parcel tax for San Francisco Unified School District?

- Yes
- No

If the Costa Hawkins Rental Housing Act is repealed at the state level, would you commit to implementing vacancy controls in San Francisco?

Would you support a tax on transportation network companies (TNCs) and other "gig economy" operators?

San Francisco suffers a continued affordability and housing crisis. Please explain how you think this crisis should be addressed (in general), then list actionable concrete steps you would take, if elected, to move toward those solutions. Include an explanation of whose interests you will prioritize, and at least one example of a step you would support but which is not currently politically feasible.

My housing vision is to create an affordable city for every San Franciscan—and that means all of us. Housing insecurity isn't academic to me. I've lived it for my whole life, from growing up in Plaza East to continuing to live as a tenant as the President of the Board of Supervisors. Addressing the affordability crisis will be one of my top priorities as Mayor, and I'm proud to have been the first candidate in this race to release a housing policy platform. I've delivered good housing policy on the Board, and I'm running as the most pro-housing candidate because we need to be taking this crisis seriously.

Confronting the affordability crisis means protecting and expanding our affordable and rent-controlled housing stock. It means increasing funding for all types of housing. It means honoring Mayor Lee's commitment to build 5,000 units per year. It means funding and building hundreds of modular homes for homeless people. It means negotiating building on underutilized sites—just like I did with the McDonald's on Haight and Stanyan. It means working to keep our middle-income earners in San Francisco. And it means reforming our approval process for code-complaint new housing and greenlighting 100% affordable projects that are code-compliant.

The housing crisis is a long-term problem that demands creative and bold solutions. As Mayor, I'll commit to stop pitting San Franciscans against each other when it comes to development, because this crisis affects us all. After all, this is San Francisco—there's no problem we can't solve when we work together.

There are two gross receipts ballot measures on the June 2018 ballot. The conflicting measures section ensures both cannot be implemented, even if they both pass. Which do you support?

- 1% gross receipts from the lease of warehouse space and 3.5% gross receipts from lease of all other commercial space for early childcare and education
- 1.7% gross receipts from lease of commercial space to fund low- and middle-income housing and homelessness services

Do you support the SF tenant right to counsel measure on the June 2018 ballot?

- Yes
- No

Do you support the June 2018 ballot measure to provide SF police with tasers?

- Yes
- No

Final Question

Is there anything else you want to tell us? (3000 character limit)

I'm running to be the Mayor for ALL San Franciscans. There's too much tribalism in our politics —too much gridlock and naysaying. We need to stop fighting with each other and start fighting for each other, for everyone's sake. I'm running for Mayor to ensure that every San Franciscan has the opportunity of a good paying job, a safe and affordable place to live, and the peace of mind that comes from feeling safe in our homes and on the streets of our City.

This is San Francisco—there's no problem we can't solve. Together we can make San Francisco more affordable for everyone. Together we can we can make San Francisco safer for everyone. And together, we can continue leading the world on environmental policy, human rights, and our shared San Francisco values. No matter what happens in Washington, D.C., San Franciscans deserve a Mayor who will always fight for them in San Francisco. I want to be that Mayor. Together, we have a bright future ahead.

Regarding Costa Hawkins Repeal; I support the repeal of Costa Hawkins. We need to preserve some of our city's most valuable affordable housing stock — rent controlled units. As Mayor, I would ask our city partners to study the potential effects of limitations on new tenant rents, like I did when the Board of Supervisors changed inclusionary housing requirements. We need to find creative solutions to increase pricing stability without creating another housing crisis in the future.

Regarding support removing the prohibition on reprimands; I would need to study this issue more and consult with Police commissioners, community leaders, and other stakeholders.

Regarding congestion pricing; During my time on the Board of Supervisors, I've worked to modernize and improve the reliability of MUNI in order to provide a safe, clean, and fast public transit system that alleviates congestion. The implementation of congestion pricing, though, has not had a robust community process. Because this will affect the entire community, there should be more outreach and consensus-building on this idea.

Regarding SF tenant right to counsel; I'm a lifelong tenant, so I know as well as anyone the real-life effects of San Francisco's affordability crisis. But, when about 1,800 eviction notices were served in San Francisco in 2016, and nine out of ten evictees went unrepresented, we need to take this seriously and act fast. I've introduced legislation at the Board of Supervisors to ensure a right to civil counsel in these cases. I agree with the need and goals of the ballot measure, but my preference is to handle this through legislation, because it's faster, can be funded, and later improved. But that doesn't necessarily mean I oppose the ballot route. The conversation is ongoing about the mechanism, but I fully support the objective and am working to realize it.

Regarding 2014's Prop G, the anti-speculation tax; I did not take a position on this measure.
