

Kentucky Credit Union League Releases Video Thanking Financial First Responders

For Immediate Release on April 24, 2020:

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY – On Friday, April 24th, the Kentucky Credit Union League released a “Thank You” video aimed at credit union employees, also referred to as Financial First Responders.

During this time of crisis, Kentucky’s credit unions continue to assist members and communities through this economic uncertainty. From deferring loan payments to providing low interest short-term loan options and financial counseling, Kentucky credit unions are providing real solutions and essential services to those in need.

“We are so proud and extremely grateful for our credit unions,” said Debbie Painter, Kentucky Credit Union League President. “ We want all of our ‘financial first responders’ to know that we appreciate their sacrifice and their service to their members.”

About Kentucky Credit Union League

The Kentucky Credit Union League is an association of credit unions operating in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. It is a non-profit corporation owned and controlled by member credit unions through their elected representatives and is solely supported by the dues of its member credit unions. The League’s many services include regulatory and political advocacy, education and training for credit union staff and volunteer officials, and a wide range of informational and operational resources, including compliance assistance. The League is dedicated to serving member credit unions and we proudly promote the "Credit Union Difference" through advocacy, education and public service.
