	The People's Assembly is a group that wants to fight Government cuts. It is made up of people from lots of different campaigns, and individual people.
	They are having a demonstration on the 16th April. The demonstration is about 4 things:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Health
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Homes

- Jobs

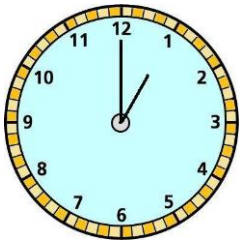

- Education

When?

Saturday 16th April.

People will be getting there from 1pm and the march will start at about 2pm.

Where?

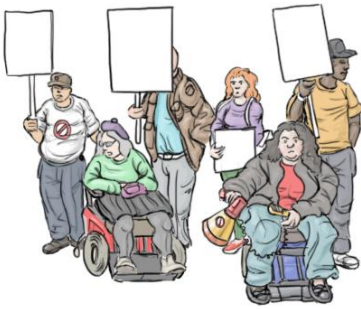

The march starts at the top of Gower Street where it meets Euston Road.

The nearest tube stations are Euston Square and Warren Street.

They do not have step-free access. The nearest station with step-free access is King's Cross-St Pancras.

A bloc is a group of people who choose to march together. There is a bloc organised by Deaf and Disabled people.

You can join them if you want to.

If you need help working out how to get there you can phone the numbers on the bottom of this leaflet.

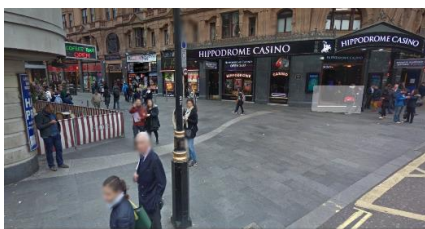

There will be coaches organised from other parts of the country.

To find out if there is one from where you live you can phone the office on the number at the bottom of this leaflet.

Everyone will march to Trafalgar Square.

For people who don't want to march the whole way there will be a shorter march.

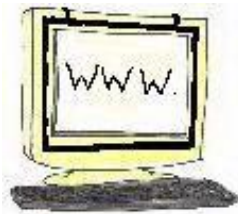

People will meet outside the Hippodrome on Charing Cross Road from 2pm. They will join the rest of the march when it goes past.

The nearest station is Westminster.

There will be stewards along the way. These are people that will support the march. You can ask them for help if you need it.

How do I find out more?
