Part VI, Section A, Line 3: Did the organization delegate control over management duties customarily performed by or under the direct supervision of officers, directors, or trustees, or key employees to a management company or other person?

The organization was managed by all 15 employees, none of whom meet the definition of a "key employee," because none of them made more than $150,000. All staff receive equal salaries and are expected to participate equally in the management of the organization, under a staff governance structure that ensures a high level of integrity and accountability. Management includes tasks such as facilitating bookkeeping, budgeting, managing insurance, recordkeeping, coordinating hiring and training, contact management, newsletters, website management, and other administrative functions. The directors provide substantial oversight over management activities of the staff.

Part VI, Section B, Line 11b: Describe in Schedule O the process, if any, used by the organization to review this Form 990.

Three staff worked closely with our bookkeeper and accountant to ensure that we have all necessary financial information to prepare the 990. After preparing a draft of the 990, the three staff worked together to review our responses against the instructions, and cross-check all of the numbers we input. The draft was provided to the Board of Directors, and staff incorporated feedback from the Board.

Part VI, Sec. B, Line 12: Did the organization regularly and consistently monitor and enforce compliance with the [conflict of interest] policy?

We keep track of all organizations and businesses in which directors, officers, and staff members have an interest. When directors, officers, or staff are contemplating a transaction with an interested person, or with an entity that they are members or owners of, we carefully follow the procedures in our conflict of interest policy, which includes deliberating about the matter, exploring alternatives, and voting on the matter without the interested party present. Conflicts of interest are generally identified and reviewed by the Board, however, an independent team of staff members also reviews conflicts of interest that arise at the staff level.

Part VI, Sec. B, Line 15a and 15b: Description of process for determining compensation of staff:

All staff earn equal salaries that are set with reference to the MIT Living Wage Index. All staff members earn the same salary, regardless of role or length of tenure with the organization. All staff are involved in salary discussions. Any changes in the salary must first be presented at an all-staff meeting, approved by every staff member of the organization, and then sent to the Board for review. The Board of Directors then deliberates on the matter and examines the basis of the current living wage calculations before approving any change. All staff currently make salaries that are far below market rates for similarly situated nonprofit employees.

Part VI, Section C, Line 19: Describe in Schedule O whether (and if so, how) the organization made its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public during the tax year.

Many organizations have asked to see our governing documents in order to use them as a model. We have provided them upon request.

In addition, our internal operating policies and employee handbook are available on our website. We also maintain a page on our website that provides a high-level overview of our finances (income and expenses).
