All are welcome to become Thoughtful Foods members

Membership fees are $20 annually and are active until the end of January each year. All new members also buy a single $10 share that is refundable and remains valid as long as your membership is active. Discounts are not applicable to shares or membership fees. Memberships are processed at the Thoughtful Foods shop and all details must be completed for your membership to be approved. To maintain an accurate membership register, as required under the Co-operatives Act, Thoughtful Foods requires you to provide a current address. Additionally, to fulfil our legal obligations, Thoughtful Foods requires a current email address and phone number. These obligations include providing members with the details of our AGM and notifying members of their addition to the membership register. Shares may be refunded to active members who wish to leave Thoughtful Foods, as long as they have no outstanding debts to the co-op. To request a share refund, email office@thoughtfulfoods.org.au. Shares are non-transferable & are paid back to you by EFT.
