

High rise buildings sustain high waste diversion rates & reduce GHGs

Building teams maintain waste diversion systems

Residents divert waste consistently and accurately

Diverting and reducing waste is a social norm in the building

Building Teams receive feedback on their progress and recognition for their leadership

Building Teams track diversion progress and provide feedback to residents

Residents receive feedback on diversion performance to correct behaviour and/or celebrate success

Building Teams receive expert support, peer mentorship and training needed to implement Waste Reduction Plan

Communications plan to educate & engage residents implemented

Residents receive actionable information & education to divert more waste

Building Teams improve physical access to diversion services in building

Residents have improved physical access to diversion services

Building Teams develop Waste Reduction Plans

Building Teams are aware of building performance from baseline waste assessment & feedback

Building Teams are aware of waste diversion barriers in building

Building Teams commit to participation in the project and goal setting