

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

The Institute will be an intensive learning experience that is based on the extensive experience of participants and facilitators. Therefore, successful applicants will be those who have held a union office or other position of responsibility, or otherwise been active in the union or related community and/or social justice work such as organizing drives, campaigns, etc. Because the goal of the Institute is to build skills among emerging labour leaders and activists, workers of colour, women, and youth are encouraged to apply.

REGISTRATION FEE

$600.00 fee includes food and materials and overnight stay the second weekend.

LOCATION

4 day event — over 2 weekends

One weekend will be held in Toronto. The other includes a Saturday overnight stay at the Monoclimbs Outdoor Education Centre in Caledon.

TO APPLY

The Institute will be limited to 18-25 participants to provide a quality of learning experience and encourage relationship-building.

To be considered for the Institute, participants must complete the requirements of the registration process (see inside) and send it to Toronto & York Region Labour Council, 15 Gervais Dr. Suite 407, Toronto, ON M3C 1Y8, by fax 416.445.8405 or email council@labourcouncil.ca

LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE 2019

November 16/17 and
November 30/December 1

The objective of the Institute is to develop leaders who will be able to:

- MOBILIZE WORKERS in the workplace around key issues such as Bargaining goals, defence of jobs, or worker rights
- ANALYZE THE FORCES at play and the challenges for workers in their sector
- RECRUIT ACTIVISTS for broader collective campaigns of the union or labour movement
- ACTIVELY WORK for an equity agenda within their union
- GENERATE SUPPORT for their union's engagement in political action
- FULFILL THE RESPONSIBILITY of reaching out to unrepresented workers either in their sector or their community
- CONTRIBUTE TO BUILDING the solidarity of workers at local, national and international levels

LEARNING APPROACH:

The Institute will combine seminars by guest speakers and facilitators along with small group work for problem solving, skill building and discussion. Speakers/facilitators will be encouraged to be actively involved in the Institute on an on-going basis.
