Summer Institute in Bioethics (7-Week Intensive)

"The diversity of participants and the engaging faculty made this experience truly unforgettable."

June 8 - July 25, 2020

 Rates reduced by $75 for those who apply by Nov. 15 * Limited # of 4-week options for medical students/clinicians ***
$2,050 undergraduates; $2,375 grad students; $2,525 young professionals; $3,500 professionals

Now in its 15th year, and intended for undergrads through professionals, the Summer Institute is a 7-week program known for its engaging and approachable faculty, enthusiastic alumni network, & networking with faculty and participants from all over the globe.

Choose from over twenty small, intensive seminars (on topics including ethics of climate change, neuroethics, law, moral reasoning, technology, information ethics, social justice, global health, end-of-life care, animal ethics, & more), bioethics movie nights, and selected events in Spanish and French for native speakers. Participants also visit the Hastings Center & present a poster at Yale School of Medicine.

Recent alumni have presented their work at bioethics conferences at Oxford, the American Society of Bioethics and Humanities, UNESCO's World Conference, and the International Association of Bioethics World Congress.

Admissions are rolling. We encouraged by December 15, but rolling admissions will continue through the spring.
