- (ii) A majority of 60% of voting delegates is required to elect the President. In the event that a majority of 60% is not achieved on the first ballot, the candidate with the least amount of votes will be eliminated from the ballot, and a second ballot will be held. This process will be followed until a President is elected with the required 60% majority. However, if there are only two candidates for the position of President on a ballot, the candidate with the most votes will be declared elected. In the event of a tie where only two candidates are on the ballot, the election will be determined by a coin toss of the Chief Electoral Officer.
- (iii) To be eligible for the position of President, a person must be a member of one of the Indigenous Nations of British Columbia.
- (iv) Upon election, the President will become a Full Member of the U.B.C.I.C. for the term of their Presidency. Their term will expire at the opening of the A.G.A. where the next election for President will be held.

- (ii) Chiefs Council will establish a process and appoint any persons they deem necessary to carry out the election of the Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer and Active Members.
- (iii) Active Members serve a term concurrent with the Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer and therefore are not eligible to vote in the next regularly scheduled election of Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer or Active Members.

(d) Chief Electoral Officer

At least five weeks prior to the A.G.A. in an election year, the Executive Committee will appoint a Chief Electoral Officer to oversee the elections of the President, Executive Committee and Active Members.

The Chief Electoral Officer will act as an impartial officer to ensure the fair conduct of the elections and will serve for a term of four weeks prior to the election of President, until the business of the elections are concluded. The Chief Electoral Officer will:

- (i) Distribute nomination forms to all Full and Active Members, receive nominations, and ensure that those nominated are eligible to run;

- (v) Report the results of each ballot and call for run-off elections, where necessary; and
- (vi) Appoint assistants, as required, to help with carrying out the election.

(e) Nominations

- (i) Starting four weeks before each election (for President, at the A.G.A. at which the election for President is held; for Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer and Active Members at the Chiefs' Council immediately following the election of the President) and ending at 4:30 p.m. on the day that is two weeks before the election, nomination papers (in the form set by the Chief Electoral Officer) can be submitted to the attention of the Chief Electoral Officer at the U.B.C.I.C.'s Vancouver or Kamloops offices.
- (ii) Nominations for the position of President must be supported by the endorsement of three Full or Active Members in good standing of the U.B.C.I.C.;

(f) Credential Committee and Electors List

The Chiefs in Assembly at the start of each A.G.A. where an election for President is taking place will appoint a Credential Committee, comprised of three Full or Active Members in good standing who are members of three separate Indigenous Nations (and not merely Indian Bands), and are not standing for election.

(i) A U.B.C.I.C. staff member who is familiar with the membership list will be appointed as a non-voting member to assist the Credential Committee;

(ii) The Credential Committee shall be responsible for (1) certifying the credentials of Members and eligible proxies to prepare an Electors List of all Full and Active Members in good standing eligible to vote, and (2) interpreting and applying the By-Laws and any elections regulations to resolve any disputes which may occur during elections;

(iii) The Credential Committee, working with the U.B.C.I.C. staff, will make an on-going Electors List available during the first day of the meeting where the election is to occur;

(iv) The Credential Committee will receive and consider all protests from people who feel that their names were erroneously excluded from the Electors List. Upon speaking with this person, considering the By-Laws, and conducting any investigations that they think necessary, the Credential Committee will make the final decision as to whether or not this individual's name should be included on the Electors List;

(v) On the morning of the election, the Credential Committee will provide to the Chief Electoral Officer an Electors List at least 30 minutes before the election is to occur;

(vi) In the interests of ensuring that all Full and Active Members can vote where they are entitled to do so, the Credential Committee, up until the close of any ballot, may issue to the Chief Electoral Officer a notice that a person's name was erroneously excluded and request that they be allowed to vote;

(vii) The Credential Committee will continue to act at the Chiefs' Council where elections for the positions of Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer and Active Members are held. If any member of the Credential Committee is standing for election and not able to act, the remaining members of the Credential Committee will appoint an alternate from amongst the Full Members in good standing present at that Chiefs' Council; and

(g) Chiefs' Council can pass Elections Regulations, not inconsistent with these By-Laws, to govern elections. Notice of the intent to either pass, or amend, Elections Regulations must be sent to all Full and Active Members at least two weeks in advance of the Chiefs' Council meeting at which they are being considered.

VII. RECALL OF MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OR ACTIVE MEMBERS

(a) Members of the Executive Committee or Active Members may be recalled by a Special Resolution with the support of 2/3 (two-thirds) of those Full and Active Members in good standing who vote at a duly called meeting for: (1) failing to perform their duties as outlined in these By-Laws; (2) failing to attend at least three consecutive Chiefs' Council meetings, unless they have a valid medical reason or were attending to the business of the U.B.C.I.C.; or, (3) being the subject of criminal charges (provided that this does not include activities which are done in furtherance of Aboriginal Title, Rights and Treaty Rights).

(b) The Executive Committee member or Active Member facing recall will be given a full opportunity to respond to the allegations before a vote on the recall motion proceeds.

VIII. VACANCIES OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND ACTIVE MEMBER REPRESENTATIVES

(a) In the event that a member of the Executive Committee or an Active Member is unable to act; resigns; is recalled; or, in the case of the Vice-President or Secretary-Treasurer, ceases to be the representative of a Full Member, the position shall be filled by a simple majority secret ballot vote (50% of all votes, plus one) of all Full and Active Members in good standing present at the next Chiefs' Council.

(b) The newly elected Executive Member or Active Member will serve a term concurrent with the remainder of the term of the Member that they are replacing.

(b) Within five working days of the conclusion of the election, any candidate or Full or Active Member in good standing, may file an appeal in writing to the Elections Appeal Committee through the U.B.C.I.C.'s offices, if they allege election irregularities or unfairness.

(c) Within one week of receipt of the request for review, the Elections Appeal Committee will review the request and may, by majority decision:

- (i) Decide that there are insufficient grounds to hold a hearing, and affirm the election results; or
 - (ii) Decide that there are sufficient grounds to warrant a hearing, and schedule a hearing to examine the complaint within two weeks of its receipt.
- (d) Each candidate directly involved, as well as any other person who the Elections Appeal Committee deems necessary, will be invited to provide input.
- (e) Upon conclusion of the hearing, the Elections Appeal Committee can
- (i) Dismiss the appeal if they decide that (1) the complaint is not valid, (2) there is not enough evidence to support it, or (3) that the allegation, if true, did not impact the election result; or
 - (ii) Call for a run-off election if they decide that the complaint is warranted.
- (f) Upon reaching their decision, the Election Appeal Committee will prepare a written report of their decision which will be sent to all Full and Active Members of the U.B.C.I.C.
- (g) Any run-off election called by the Elections Appeal Committee will be held at the next Chiefs' Council meeting, with at least one-month notice being provided to U.B.C.I.C. members, and only those candidates who were on the initial ballot for the contested position will have their names placed on the ballot.
