Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment

We're proud of the work we do with community partners to strengthen community response to sexual violence. Our position as a statewide organization means we work along side sexual assault survivors and the professionals who support them. We are grateful for our partnerships and collaborations that make our work possible. Overall in 2019 our organization:

-Maintained online communication and marketing resources for partner organizations and the general public and took steps to improve these communication methods through growing our social media footprint and engagement.

- We circulated survivor booklets and responder information to partner organizations to maintain a level of knowledge on new and existing resources through a growing technical assistance program.

-We continued to facilitate sexual assault counselor training curriculum and delivered trainings to more locations throughout the state than ever before.

-We upkept our SART programming and improved communication with teams by installing a listserv that continues to grow in capabilities and resource sharing.

-We continue to collaborate with community partners in coalitions outside of the state and organizations providing service around the state of Utah, gearing us up for future events in 2020.
