FACULTY ADVANCEMENT

Section 5. Promotion Process

A. Faculty Qualifications for Promotion. Faculty members who apply for a promotion in rank following ratification of this Agreement must have been in their current rank for a minimum of three (3) years, must have continuing contract or must have been recommended for continuing contract by their campus president, and must have completed the following graduate credits* in courses and degrees within their academic discipline or another area approved by the College. For faculty with multiple degrees, all credits beyond the first master’s degree will count toward promotion. For all master’s degrees with more than thirty-six (36) credits, any additional credits will count toward promotion.

1. Professor
   Earned Doctorate, or College-approved program
   Associate Professor, Senior
   Masters + 39 credits
   Associate Professor
   Masters + 24 credits
   Assistant Professor
   Masters + 9 credits

* Exceptions to graduate credits (45 hours = 3 graduate credits) may include non-graduate credits, continuing education units, or other professional training appropriate to the advancement of the discipline/department and approved in advance by the Academic Dean, with the understanding that exceptions to graduate credits for promotion and/or Endowed Chair will be subject to a more stringent evaluation than those for Faculty Professional Development. Response to such requests will be made within ten (10) working days. As a further exception, the College may permit certain Faculty Professional Development programs to count as graduate credits.
