The post-16 Skills and Education Landscape: a bright future for all?

An event for UCU and UNISON members and activists

Friday 12 May, 10am—3pm

People’s History Museum, Manchester M3 3ER

Refreshments and buffet lunch will be provided

The post-16 education and skills landscape is changing fast. Come and hear about and discuss the key issues including:

- Apprenticeships
- Area Reviews
- The HE Bill
- Devolution
- The Future of Colleges
- Institutes of Technology

Speakers will include:
- Gordon Marsden MP, Shadow Minister for HE, FE and Skills
- Gemma Marsh, Director of Skills & Employment, GMCA
- Dr Vicky Duckworth and Dr Rob Smith, FE Transforming Lives Project
- Ruth Levin, UNISON National Officer, Education
- Gila Tabrizi, UCU National Policy Officer

To book your place, please contact Diane Daniels at d.daniels@unison.co.uk 0161 661 6713