UNISON South East’s

2016 Equality Conference: Post Election Priorities

Tuesday 12th April 2016
10am to 4pm
UNISON Centre, 130 Euston Road
London, NW1 2AY

A one day conference with invited guest speakers who will provide expert insight and advice on post election priorities for equality and provide guidance on anti discrimination legislation and case law. There will also be a number of participative workshops.

Speakers include:
Kate Green, Shadow Minister for Women and Equalities
Alice Hood, TUC Head of Equality and Strategy Department
Rakesh Patel, Thompsons Employment Rights Manager
Annaliese Dodds, MEP (tbc)

Ahead of us is another five years of a Conservative Government. A government whose agenda is to diminish equality and employment rights. Where will equality be in five years time?

The outcome of the EU referendum will play a major part in determining where equality will be headed and equally uncertain is the future of the Human Rights Act which presents real fear of regression in terms of rights.

It is imperative that UNISON continues to campaign on all fronts, to raise awareness of and to progress equality in our branches, workplaces and society. The regional Equality conference will give you and your branch the tools and resources to raise awareness and to meet the challenges that lie ahead.
