

The rules of Unite Incorporated

As last amended by the 2018 Unite AGM

1. Name:

1.1. The name of the Incorporated Society shall be Unite. For the purposes of these Rules referred to as "the Union".

2. Purposes

2.1. Unite is a community based union formed:

- a) to protect and further the interests of members and working people as a whole by carrying out any policy decided in accordance with these Rules.
- b) to recruit and organise workers, including marginal labour, unemployed and beneficiaries.
- c) to secure the best possible working conditions for members of the Union by promoting members' collective employment interests
- d) to secure the best standard of living for members, other workers, their families and communities.
- e) to assist any other union, federation, movement or organisation for the betterment of the working conditions, remuneration and/or welfare of its members or working people as a whole.
- f) to affiliate to any other union, federation, movement or organisation for the furtherance of the objects of the Union.
- g) to prudently invest any surplus funds of the Union to increase the resources available for use as specified in parts (a) to (e) of this Rule.
- h) to uphold the principles of the Maori version of the Treaty of Waitangi including that of tino rangatiratanga in all its work.

3. Ordinary Membership:

- 3.1. Ordinary membership of the Union is open to any person who supports the purposes of the union.
- 3.2. Ordinary members shall pay the appropriate fees as determined by the union and shall be referred to for the purposes of these rules as "the member" or "members"
- 3.3. Any person described in 3.1 may become a member on making application on the appropriate form to the Secretary or her/his representative and membership, when approved, shall be deemed to have begun from the date of application.
- 3.4. The appropriate form for application shall be one approved by the Unite Executive, which may include forms approved under the Employment Relations Act or its successor which indicate intent to join.
- 3.5. All applicants will receive electronic or written notice when their application has been accepted or declined by the Secretary.
- 3.6. Any applicant who the Secretary has declined membership to may appeal the decision to the next Executive who may approve or decline the application by majority vote. The Executive's decision is final.
- 3.7. Any applicant who has previously been declined membership or had their membership terminated shall not become a member unless the Executive approves it by majority vote. The Executive's decision is final.
- 3.8. Members may belong to another union concurrently with their membership of the union.

4. Support Membership:

- 4.1. Any person or current member on a worksite not being organised by the union may become a Support Member of the union. Support members shall pay fees for services provided as determined by the Secretary but shall have none of the rights or privileges of an ordinary member.

5. Obligations of Members

- 5.1. All members shall promote the purposes of the Union and shall do nothing to bring the Union into disrepute.

6. Resignation and expulsion:

- 6.1. Any member desiring to withdraw from the Union may do so by giving the Secretary two weeks notice of her/his intention and by paying all dues owing up to the expiry date of the notice.
- 6.2. Such withdrawal shall not be effective, except with the leave of the Executive, until all dues are paid. Withdrawal shall not exempt any member from liability in respect of any act or omission while that person was a member.
- 6.3. A union member may have his or her membership terminated if, for any reason whatsoever, the Executive is of the view that a member is breaching the Rules or acting in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the union.
- 6.4. The Executive must give written notice of this to the member. The Executive's notice must:
 - a) Explain how the member is breaching the Rules or acting in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the union;
 - b) State what the member must do in order to remedy the situation; or state that the member must write to the Executive giving reasons why the Committee should not terminate the member's membership.
 - c) State that if, within 14 days of the member receiving the Executive's notice, the Executive is not satisfied, the Executive may in its absolute discretion immediately terminate the member's membership.
 - d) State that if the Executive terminates the member's membership, the Member may appeal to the next AGM.
- 6.5. The member shall be given the opportunity to address the Executive verbally or in writing before any vote on the matter.
- 6.6. Any member whose membership is terminated shall have right of appeal, in writing or in person to the next Annual General Meeting and if her/his appeal is upheld the meeting shall have the power to reinstate the membership. The AGM's decision will be final.
- 6.7. Any costs incurred by a member who has received written notice or has had their membership terminated shall be met by the member themselves.

7. Membership roll:

- 7.1.
