Producer
Nobuko Saito Cleary

Director
Barry Frechette

Directed by Barry Frechette and produced by Nobuko Saito Cleary, the film follows Shigeaki Mori, a Japanese historian and atomic bomb survivor, and his 35 year-long journey to find the families of 12 American prisoners of war (POW) that perished during the Hiroshima bombing. The final scene of "Paper Lanterns" (shown above) depicts Mori's emotional encounter with President Obama on May 27, 2016.
