Title: Arepas for Breakfast
Author: Alejandra Rivas-Mintz
Grade: 2-6
Publisher: Author House
ISBN: 9781728325309
Summary: Arepas for Breakfast is a story about three young girls living in Philadelphia, who miss their Abuela (who lives in Venezuela) very much. The girls' mother is from Venezuela and their father is from New York. Whenever Abuela comes to visit, she makes the girls favorite breakfast -- Arepas. Unfortunately, Abuela only comes when the weather is warm. "Hace frío!" Abuela would say. Fortunately, their father has learned to make the almost perfect Arepa. The only thing missing is Abuela -- or is she?

Title: Roberto's Trip to the Top
Author: John B. Patterson Jr. & John Patterson Sr.
Grade: K-6
Publisher: Candlewick Press
ISBN: 9780763627089
Summary: Today was the day! Finally it is time for Roberto to take his well-earned trip on the Teleférico to the top of El Ávila, the mountain overlooking his village. Since Papá has to work, Tío Antonio will go with his nephew, who makes sure to pack his camera so he can share the sights with Papá. Up, up, up, the cable car goes, over gasp-inducing ravines, to an exciting new world of vendors, animals, and a spectacular view of Caracas below. Featuring lively illustrations and interwoven with Spanish words that are translated in a glossary at the end, here is a warmhearted tale of a little boy's first big adventure without his parents.
