TOTALLY WASTED GAME SHOW

April 28, 2020

Every year four teams consisting of an operator, a young professional, an engineering consultant and a supplier, compete against one another to test their wastewater knowledge in the Totally Wasted Game Show. This is your one and only chance each year to compete for the coveted Golden Toilet trophy.

Start finding your team members now and meet us on the showroom floor Tuesday afternoon if you think you have what it takes to be this year's winner. The TWGS starts at around 3:30 pm.
