Guest speaker: Council Member Dev Davis

Happy Hollow free days – handing out pamphlets for city services – Council meeting on Saturday. Mayor Locardo put our memo commit 25,000 housing for middle income 10,000 of that for affordable housing. Tuesday meeting that council meeting on for their work load and leaf blowers....

Richard: Affordable teacher housing was Jeff Stanley called Richard Zappelli out of order for addressing the Teacher housing “not on the agenda”.

Guest speaker Council Member Don Rocha - Affordable housing/ homeless 7 years of policy issues, rent control, medical marijuana – long term goals, churches opened up to house homeless. Affordable housing, motel conversions, Veterans homelessness, microhousing (tiny homes),

Measure “ “ allows $950,000,000 over the next 5 years, city wide.

Jeff: has there a partnership between the city property can they be developed for teacher affordable housing? Don’s vote on Google, hate to see it leave, transit what is your position

Don: City hall has not asked for public benefit – vote was ena to sell the land authority; to city manager, to the authority to staff. Has nothing to do with union, labor.

Guest speaker #1: Devin Gianchandani, San Jose Department of Transportation

In the first part, Devin Gianchandani answered questions pertaining to the City of San Jose's bicycle/pedestrian program and adult encouragement programs, which is in addition to providing an overview and schedule of the Department of Transportation's paving and complete street project on Willow Glen's Minnesota Avenue. He lead a discussion on safety concerns at Minnesota/Hicks and Minnesota/Lincoln Avenues.

Guest speaker #2: Heba El-Guendy, San Jose Department of Transportation
