

Basic Cast Conditions

Hours of Work

- ▶ Cast members must not work more than 8 hours per day. This does not include meal breaks.
- ▶ Cast members must not work more than 40 hours each week.

Travel

- ▶ Hours of work begin and finish at the filmmaker's usual place of business.
- ▶ If a cast member travels straight to the location, all time spent travelling more than 20 km from the GPO must count as time worked.

Turnaround

- ▶ Turnaround is the break between days of work. Filmmakers must provide turnaround:
 - between consecutive days - 10 hours
 - for one day off - 34 hours
 - for two days off - 58 hours

Meal breaks

- ▶ Cast members must have a meal break that begins within 5 hours from the start of the work session or end of the last meal break.
- ▶ When the cast member agrees, or the majority of the cast agrees, the meal break may be delayed by one hour. If this happens, the filmmaker must explain the reason for the delay.
- ▶ The filmmaker must provide cast members with meals on location.

Rest Periods

- ▶ Cast members may take a rest period of ten minutes during the morning and afternoon of each day.
- ▶ The times for rest periods must be agreed between the filmmaker and the cast members.

Safety code

- ▶ The Motion Picture Production Certified Agreement includes a safety code.
- ▶ The filmmaker is primarily responsible for safety.
- ▶ You can contact your local MEAA office to find out more about the safety code, your rights and responsibilities.
