

END GAME GUIDELINES 2019

End Game... three months support to work on your screen dream.

Wide Angle Tasmania provides Tasmanian screen practitioners with the framework and support to work strategically on achieving their dream. End Game will help you to define your long-term screen aspiration and then identify a first step that can be achieved in 3 months.

Applications are now open for round 3 of End Game 2019. Each round, up to 8 filmmakers will be selected to participate in a 3-month programme of goal-setting, peer support, coaching and reflection designed to help you transform your great idea into action. End Game is delivered online to Tasmanian screen practitioners. The celebration event at the end of the three months will be held at Washington Street, Hobart.

Each participant will receive;

- 3 x one-one mentoring sessions to shape and evaluate the action plan to achieve your 3 month screen goal
- weekly feedback on your progress
- a network of colleagues undertaking End Game
- access to online goal setting software
- access to WAT SHARES to help achieve the steps identified in your action plan
- a launch event to celebrate your achievements

End Game is designed to:

- develop entrepreneurial thinking and creative business skills for screen practitioners.
- acquire skills and strategies that support a habit of goal setting and action planning to progress screen objectives.
- forge a community of colleagues that understand and support filmmaker's individual goals
- acquire knowledge about, and practice in engaging broadly with the screen industry to support practitioner's short-term goals

Selection for End Game is competitive and will be assessed on the application submitted. The full course cost is $120 (payable up front or by fortnightly instalments after enrolment is confirmed). If you are keen to be involved but unable to pay the full fee, please get in touch with Abi Binning to discuss your situation directly. WAT may be able to provide additional support for active contributors to the screen community.
