

Join us this Friday evening to welcome winter and catch up with friends (old and new) at Friday Freelancer Knock-Off Drinks. All welcome!

During June there will be works happening out the front of our building on Washington Street - we will use the rear door as the main entrance. Enter through the gate to the soccer oval and look for the door on your left. Street parking might also be interrupted - park in the driveway at the back of Wide Angle to lug gear.

We have some new DVDs in the library for you to borrow - Rosehaven series 2, Fanshaw & Crudnut & The Ex-PM series 2.

Production opportunity: NERVE - apply by 4pm today

Wide Angle provides Tasmanian screen practitioners with their first shot at production. Applications are now open to find four teams who will receive a cash budget and Wide Angle support to go through the full process of making a short screen project. Previously called Raw Nerve, this model of mentoring, training and support aims to provide screen practitioners with their first experience of an industry standard production that will progress their career, educational and/or creative aspirations.

Cost: free / 1 place reserved for those aged 25 and under

When: Apply by May 31
