WAT Happenings

Silver Screen - Manganinnie December 19

Our final Silver Screen event for 2018 is Manganinnie is an AFI-Award-winning 1980 film which follows the journey of Manganinnie, a Tasmanian Aboriginal woman who searches for her tribe with the company of a young, lost white girl named Joanna. Based on Beth Robert's novel of the same name, it was directed by John Honey and was the first feature film to be financed by the short-lived Tasmanian Film Corporation. We are delighted that director John Honey will join with us for a Q&A following the screening.

Silver Screen is a curated program of iconic and important Australian films screening every month. With support from the City of Hobart, Wide Angle Tasmania presents these films for free to those aged 50 and over.

When: From 2pm, Wednesday December 19

Where: Wide Angle @ 6 Washington Street, South Hobart

Cost: Free to all
