Date: Tuesday, 7 April 2020 at 12:57:10 pm Australian Eastern Standard Time

From: Wide Angle Tasmania

Hello,

Over the last few weeks we've called many of you to see how you're getting on - you're certainly a resilient mob! If we haven't been in touch but you'd like to chat, email us on info@wideangle.org.au with your phone number and we'll call you. We're interested in understanding how we can best encourage, develop and support you and our screen community over the next few months. Hoping to catch up with you this Friday during our monthly gathering - this time it'll be online!

Screen development opportunities

Copyright: Making the Most of What You Make | 6pm April 7

A FREE Webinar from Arts+Law. Creating art means creating copyright. Your copyright is one of the most important things you do as a creator or can own and understand. In this session you'll learn how to make the most of the work you create and ways to monetise your work outside of gigs, events or exhibitions. Let us walk through owning and using your copyright, knowing your moral rights as well as creating copyright with other people. This session is relevant to all artists and creatives across all art forms. Click through for more info and to register.

Running Free | Wed and Fri mornings

Running Free is a twice-weekly series of workshops for screen industry professionals and enthusiasts – delivered completely free and online by ACMI and Media Mentors! Workshops will be uploaded to ACMI's YouTube channel every Wednesday and Friday at 10am. Presenters will be available to answer your questions on Twitter - use the hashtag #runningfreeskills. Click through here for more info.

Cultural and Creative Industries stimulus package

As part of a new stimulus package, the Tasmanian government has released a package designed to address the challenges facing Tasmanian artists, screen practitioners and organisations. Four programmes are currently open;

Arts and Screen Digital Production Fund Applications close May 4

Tasmanian Contemporary Music Fund Applications close May 4

Additional Screen Development Fund Applications close April 13

Additional arts organisations funding Applications close July 6

Resilience Fund 2020 | no closing date

Applications to Australia Council for the Arts Resilience Fund are now open. Artists and arts organisations are encouraged to apply to support their livelihoods, practice and operations during the COVID-19 pandemic. The 2020 Resilience Fund includes three streams:

Survive - small grants for individuals, groups and organisations to offset or recoup financial losses due to cancelled activity

Adapt - grants for individuals, groups and organisations to adapt their practice and explore new operating models

Create - grants for individuals, groups and organisations to continue to create artistic work and develop creative responses in a time of disruption

Digital Ready Resources

The Digital Ready team has produced some resources to help businesses manage the challenges presented by covid19 using readily available digital and e-commerce tools. Check out the website here.

Call for Entries

Underground ArtPrize

A new art prize from Underground ArtBar is offering Tasmanian artists the opportunity to win $200 each week - Underground ArtPrize is accepting entries for its first round of art and film submissions. Each round responds to a monthly theme with winners announced twice weekly. The first theme is 'Complexity - A World in a Grain of Sand', and entries close on Friday, April 10. Open to ALL Tasmanian artists and artforms, click through here for more info.

Stories in September Festival 2020

Submissions are now open for the Stories in September 2020 Festival - from resident and ex-pat Tasmanian Storytellers. There are five categories: Visual, Sound, Text, Lock Down and Acceptance. The last two categories ask storytellers to create New Work based on the category name, Lock Down or Acceptance. There are 'Paid' and 'Free' submission options available. Entries are now open: five $1000 cash prizes up for grabs! For more information and guidelines for submissions see here.

Look forward to seeing you soon - take care!
