

Books and Reading Resources During Learning at Home

Betsy Hamm, Librarian

John Eaton Elementary School

Destiny – DCPS Library Catalog

<https://dcps.follettdestiny.com>

We have eBooks, audiobooks, and great websites available through Destiny. Log in with the same username and password as Clever (student ID # and birthday). Choose “Electronic Books” for Material Type or click on “WebPath Express” to find educational websites.

DC Public Library

<https://www.dclibrary.org/>

The DC Public library has tons of great online resources including eBooks, audiobooks, online story times, distance learning materials, and more. If you don't have a library card, you can sign up online to get a free temporary card at <https://www.dclibrary.org/getacard> and you will be sent a number so that you can access all of the library's online materials.

Teaching Books

<https://www.teachingbooks.net> OR sign in through Clever: <https://clever.com/in/dcpsk12>

Lots of great resources about books including excerpts and full texts/read alouds for some books, discussion questions, author information, and much more!

Audible

<https://stories.audible.com>

Audible is offering many children's audiobooks for free right now at the link above!

Children's Library from Internet Archive

<https://archive.org/details/iacl>

Collection of eBooks for kids from around the world.

Harper at Home

<https://www.harpercollins.com/childrens/harper-at-home/>

Publisher HarperCollins has a schedule of great activities including author read alouds, podcasts, online book clubs, and more!