

Legislative Candidate Covenant

With every national election, voters send one of our fellow citizens to Sacramento so that she or he can represent our viewpoints and interests in our state legislature. This is the bedrock of our republic, upon which the legitimacy of self-government rests. With the covenant below candidates for the Legislature vow that they will represent their constituents according to their wishes as expressed in Proposition 49.

“If elected to the California legislature, I will represent the people of my district by following the advice and instructions of a majority of my constituents as expressed in Proposition 49. Specifically, if Proposition 49 receives majority support in my district, if given the opportunity I shall vote to ratify amendments to the United States Constitution which overturn Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, and other applicable judicial precedents, to allow the full regulation or limitation of campaign contributions and spending, to ensure that all citizens, regardless of wealth, may express their views to one another, and to make clear that the rights protected by the United States Constitution are the rights of natural persons only.”
