Any formal disciplinary notice that became null and void shall, at the written request of the employee, be placed in a sealed envelope and left in a separate file that may only be opened by the employee or by the Director or an Officer of the Labour Relations Branch of the Public Service Commission. ARTICLE 28: PROCESSING OF GRIEVANCES

(2) At anytime the Union may bring forward a Policy grievance on behalf of an individual or the Union concerning the interpretation of the Collective Agreement or an arbitral award.

(3) Grievors in a Group Grievance must have the approval of, and be represented by the Alliance. The Union will define the group of employees on whose behalf the grievance has been submitted. It is understood that the Union will not present a series of Individual grievances in preference to defining a group of employees and submitting a Group Grievance.

28.02 (1) An employee or group of employees who wish(s) to present a grievance or complaint relating to a provision of the collective agreement or arbitral award shall transmit this grievance through the Alliance.

(2) The grievance administrator shall acknowledge receipt of the grievance by returning the appropriate copies to the grievor and the Alliance as applicable.
28.03 A grievance of an employee or group of employees shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact it is not in accordance with the form supplied by the Employer.

28.04 Subject to and as provided in Section 77 of the Yukon Public Service Labour Relations Act, an employee or group of employees who feel(s) that they have been treated unjustly or considers themselves aggrieved by any action or lack of action by the Employer, is entitled to present a grievance in the manner prescribed in Clause 28.02, except that where there is another administrative procedure provided by or under any other Act to deal with their specific complaint, such procedure must be followed.

28.05 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, a grievance shall be processed by recourse to the following steps:

(1) Individual Grievance
    Process for Grievances under 28.01(1):

    (a) Level 1 - First level of Supervision

    A problem-solving meeting in which the individual employee has the right of representation from the Alliance, and the supervisor has the right of consultation with the Department Human Resource Office. The Parties acknowledge that front line supervisors and managers may be members of the bargaining unit. Supervisors acting in this capacity are not dealing formally on behalf of the Employer with respect to the administration of the grievance procedure, pursuant to the Yukon Public Service Labour Relations Act, and their involvement does not serve as the basis for the Employer to seek exclusion of those positions from the bargaining unit.

    When an individual employee has requested a meeting in relation to a grievance at Level 1 such problem-solving shall be held within twenty (20) working days of the Employer’s receipt of the grievance. If the matter is not resolved at Level 1 it may be referred to Level 2 within five (5) working days.

    (b) Level 2 – First level of Management

    A problem-solving meeting in which the individual employee has the right of representation from the Alliance, and the manager has the right of consultation from the Department Human Resource Office or the Labour Relations Branch of the Public Service Commission

    The Employer shall normally reply to an individual employee's grievance at Level 2 of the grievance procedure, within ten (10) working days after the grievance is referred. If the matter is not resolved at Level 2 it may be referred to the Final Level within five (5) working days.

    When the first level supervisor is also the first level of management, a Level 2 problem solving meeting may be held at the next level of management rather than referring the matter directly to the Final Level, by agreement between the Employer and Alliance.

    (c) Final Level – Deputy Minister
A meeting that shall be held within ten (10) working days of the grievance being referred, at which the Deputy Minister has the right of consultation with the Labour Relations Branch or the Department Human Resource Office, and in which they shall hear the individual employee, who has the right of representation from the Alliance.

The Deputy Minister shall provide their written reasoned decision, within ten (10) working days of the meeting.

(2) Policy Grievance
Process for Grievances under 28.01(2):

Policy grievances shall be presented by the Alliance in the first instance to the Public Service Commission for investigation not later than sixty calendar (60) days after the date on which the Alliance was notified orally or in writing or on which it first becomes aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance. Any such grievances not resolved in that investigation shall be heard at a meeting with the Public Service Commissioner within a further 60 calendar days of the presentation of the grievance for investigation.

When the Public Service Commissioner has heard such a grievance they shall provide their written reasoned decision within 20 working days.

(3) Group Grievance
Process for Grievances under 28.01 (3):

(a) Level 1 – First Level of Management

A problem-solving meeting in which the group of employees shall be represented by the Alliance and in which the manager may be advised by the Departmental Human Resource Office or the Labour Relations Branch.

When a group of employees has requested a meeting in relation to a grievance at Level 1, the problem-solving meeting shall be held within twenty (20) working days of the Employer’s receipt of the grievance. If the matter is not resolved at the Initial Level it may be referred to the Final Level within five (5) working days.

(b) Final Level – Deputy Minister

A meeting that shall be held within ten (10) days of the grievance being referred and at which the group of employees shall be represented by the Alliance and at which the Deputy Minister may be advised by the Labour Relations Branch or Departmental Human Resources. The Deputy Minister shall provide their written reasoned decision within ten (10) days.

28.06 (1) Discussions and resolutions shall not be considered precedent setting to the Collective Agreement or the grievance process.

(2) There shall be full disclosure by the Parties of all facts and considerations pertinent to the grievance at each and every level of the grievance processes.

(3) If a grievance concerns the application of the Collective Agreement, the employee must be represented by the Alliance.
28.07 Where the Alliance acts as the representative, they shall have the right to consult with the Employer with respect to a grievance at each or any level of the grievance procedure. And, the Public Service Commission, Labour Relations Branch shall have the right to consult with the Alliance with respect to a grievance at each or any level of the grievance procedure.

28.08 Time Limits

For the purpose of the time limits stipulated in this Collective Agreement, a day means all days except Saturdays, Sundays and designated paid holidays

(1) An Individual employee or Group of employees may present a grievance to the initial Level of the relevant process, in the manner prescribed in Clause 28.02 not later than twenty (20) working days after the date on which they are notified orally or in writing or on which they first become aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

(2) The time limits stipulated in this Article may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Alliance, or between the Employer and the employee when 28.06 (3) does not apply.

(3) Any employee, group of employees, or the Alliance who fail(s) to present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits shall be deemed to have abandoned the grievance unless, due to circumstances beyond their control, they were unable to comply with the prescribed time limits.

(4) Where the provisions of Clause 28.02 cannot be complied with and it is necessary to present a grievance by mail, the grievance shall be deemed to have been presented on the day on which it is postmarked and it shall be deemed to have been received by the Employer on the day it is delivered to the appropriate person of the Department or Agency concerned. Similarly, the Employer shall be deemed to have delivered a reply at any level on the date on which the reply is postmarked, but the time limit within which the grievor may present their grievance at the next higher level shall be calculated from the date on which the Employer's reply was delivered to the address shown on the grievance form.

28.09 When an employee has been represented by the Alliance in the presentation of their grievance, the Employer will provide the appropriate representative of the Alliance with the Employer's decision on the grievance at the same time that the Employer's decision is conveyed to the employee(s)

28.10 The decision given by the Employer at the Final Level in the grievance procedure shall be final and binding upon the employee, unless the grievance is a class of grievance that may be referred to adjudication.

28.11 Where it appears that the nature of this grievance is such that a decision cannot be given below a particular level of authority, any or all the levels except the Final Level may be eliminated by agreement between the Employer and the Alliance or between the Employer and the employee when 28.01 does not apply.

28.12 Except as provided in Clause 28.15 (2), an employee or group of employees may, by written notice to the Employer, abandon a grievance.

28.13 No person who is employed in the public service shall seek by intimidation, by threat of dismissal or by any other kind of threat to cause an employee or group of employees to abandon their grievance or refrain from exercising their right to present a grievance as provided in the Collective Agreement.

28.14 When a grievance has been presented, up to and including the Final Level in the grievance procedure with respect to the interpretation or application in respect of them of a provision of this Collective Agreement or a related arbitral award and their grievance has not been dealt with to their satisfaction, they may, subject to 28.15(1), refer the grievance to adjudication.

28.15 (1) An employee must obtain the approval of the Alliance and be represented by the Alliance before a grievance can be referred to adjudication.

(2) A grievance referred to adjudication can only be withdrawn by the employee with the prior approval of the Alliance.

28.16 An employee, subject to Clause 28.15 (1), shall notify the Employer in writing within thirty (30) working days following the date of receipt of the decision at the Final Level of the grievance procedure of their intention to appeal the decision to adjudication. The employee or the Alliance shall refer the grievance to adjudication within sixty (60) working days following the date of receipt of the decision at the Final Level of the grievance procedure and 28.08(3) applies to this time limit.

(1) (a) A seasonal employee shall have their job performance evaluated at the following times:

(i) prior to the completion of their probationary period;

(iii) in advance of the employee's entitlement date to a performance salary increment under paragraphs (2)(a)(i) or (2)(b)(i) (by at least one hundred and twenty (120) regular hours of work).

(b) In regard to sub-paragraph (1)(a)(iii) above, the job performance evaluation shall be conducted by the seasonal employee's immediate supervisor. However, if the employee's immediate supervisor has not supervised their work for at least nine hundred (900) regular hours of work of continuous employment in the same position prior to the time that the job performance evaluation is completed, then the Employer will make a reasonable effort to have the seasonal employee's past immediate supervisor, if still employed with the Government of Yukon, conduct the job performance evaluation for that period of time that the employee was under their supervision.

(c) During the seasonal employee's probationary period, their immediate supervisor will, on an informal basis, advise the employee on the standard of their performance and conduct. If the supervisor perceives the probationary employee's performance or conduct as being unsatisfactory, they shall advise the employee of the specific areas of concern, the standard of performance and/or conduct expected of the employee, and the method for improvement.

(2) (a) Subject only to satisfactory conduct and performance, a seasonal employee, whose rate of pay is in a salary range, shall receive a performance salary increment pursuant to sub-paragraph (c) below in the following circumstances, whichever occurs the earliest:

(i) after working eighteen hundred (1800) regular hours of work of continuous employment in the same position; or

(ii) at the commencement of the employee's third consecutive season of continuous employment in the same position.

(b) Subject only to satisfactory conduct and performance, a seasonal employee, whose rate of pay is in a salary range, shall be entitled to receive further performance salary increments pursuant to sub-paragraph (c) below in the following circumstances, whichever occurs the earliest:

(c) The rate of pay for a seasonal employee who is entitled to receive a performance salary increment pursuant to sub-paragraph (a) or (b) above shall be increased by four percent (4%), subject to the following:

(i) where the application of the performance salary increment would exceed the maximum of the salary range for the position, the employee shall only receive the maximum rate of pay in the salary range;

(ii) where an employee is already receiving the maximum rate of pay in the salary range, they shall not be entitled to receive a performance salary increment.

(3) Where the Employer determines not to grant the performance salary increment to a seasonal employee, the Employer shall notify the employee in person or by registered mail at least one hundred and twenty (120) regular hours of work or thirty (30) calendar days, whichever is applicable, in advance of the employee’s entitlement date pursuant to sub-paragraph (2)(a) or (b) above. The notification will advise the auxiliary employee of the specific areas of their performance or conduct which the Employer evaluates as unsatisfactory, the reasons why, the standard of performance and/or conduct expected of the employee, and the method for improvement. The notification will also advise the employee that their immediate supervisor will arrange a meeting with the employee, within five hundred (500) regular hours of continuous employment worked by the employee in the same position after the employee received the notification, in order to review the employee’s standard of performance and/or conduct, unless the supervisor or the employee is unavailable as a result of being on an approved leave.

(4) Where the Employer withholds a performance salary increment under paragraph (3) above, the Employer may grant the increment on any subsequent first day of a month up to six (6) months or one thousand (1000) regular working hours after the date of entitlement for which the performance salary increment had been withheld.

(5) When, as a result of a formal review of a seasonal employee’s job performance, a written document is placed on their personnel file, the employee concerned shall be given an opportunity to sign the review form or document in question and to indicate that its contents have been read and explained. Upon request, the seasonal employee shall receive a copy of their performance evaluation review.

(6) The Employer will provide a space on the performance review document for the employee to make written comments pertaining to their assessment.

54.07 A seasonal employee who is appointed to a position, or whose position is reclassified, having a maximum rate of pay which is the same or lower than the maximum rate of pay of their former position shall have their date of entitlement for a salary increment, pursuant to Article 54.06(2)(a) or (b), remain unchanged.

54.08 On-Duty and Off-Duty Status

(1) A seasonal employee shall be considered to be on “on-duty” status when actively employed by the Employer in a seasonal position, including any extension periods.
A seasonal employee shall be considered to be on “off-duty” status when, due to early-release or end-of-season, they have completed a seasonal work assignment and have not begun the subsequent seasonal work assignment.

54.09 Extension of a Seasonal Employee

The on-duty period may be extended by mutual agreement between an on-duty seasonal employee and the Employer in which case, prior to the previously-scheduled end-date, the Employer will issue an amended Notice of Recall indicating the newly scheduled end date.

54.10 Temporary or Early-Release of a Seasonal Employee

(1) An on-duty seasonal employee shall be considered to be temporary or early-released from their seasonal assignment in the event that their on-duty period is terminated by the Employer prior to the scheduled end-date because of a shortage of work, abolition of the position, changes in the organization of the department or insufficient appropriated funds.

(2) Prior to temporary or early-release, the Employer shall give notice to the employee, in writing, of the temporary or early-release date and including the reason(s) for the temporary or early-release.

(3) Pursuant to (2), above, the notice period to be given shall be:

(a) for a seasonal employee who is scheduled to be on-duty for more than three (3) months but less than six (6) months the employee is entitled to two (2) weeks notice or two (2) weeks salary and vacation pay at the applicable rate set out in Article 54.01.

(b) for a seasonal employee who is scheduled to be on-duty for six (6) months or more but less than ten (10) months the employee is entitled to four (4) weeks notice or four (4) weeks salary and vacation pay at the applicable rate set out in Article 54.01.

54.11 Permanent Release

Subject to the provisions of this Agreement and the adjudication provisions of the Public Service Act, as may be amended from time-to-time, a seasonal employee shall be considered to have been permanently released from their employment with the Employer in the event that:

(1) they are rejected while on probation;

(2) they are terminated for just cause;

(3) they voluntarily terminate or resign from their employment;

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) below, a seasonal employee shall be entitled to be recalled within twelve (12) months from the date on which they went off-duty.

(3) (a) At least one month prior to their seasonal assignment commencement date, the Employer shall issue a Notice of Recall to advise the seasonal employee in writing of the specific period of employment of their seasonal work assignment, including the date on which they must report to work and the scheduled end-date.

(b) If the employee does not report to work on the date indicated in the Notice of Recall, the employee may be deemed to have waived their entitlement for recall, and may be considered as having voluntarily terminated their employment pursuant to Article 54.11, unless the employee has a reasonable justification which shall be communicated, in writing when possible, to the Employer within fourteen (14) calendar days of receiving the Notice of Recall.

(4) It is the responsibility of the seasonal employee to ensure that the Employer is at all relevant times aware of the employee’s current contact information.

54.13 Additional Payment

A seasonal employee who is on-duty in the same position for a continuous period in excess of ten (10) consecutive months shall be provided with an additional payment of three (3) months salary and vacation pay at the applicable rate set out in Article 54.01.

If applicable, a seasonal part-time employee shall be provided with the additional payment on a pro-rata basis equivalent to the average number of regular hours worked per month by the part-time employee during the ten (10) consecutive month period as a proportion of the number of regular hours which would be required to be performed per month by a full-time employee in the same classification.

54.14 Severance Pay

(1) Resignation:

Subject to paragraph (2) below, a seasonal employee who has worked 9750 or more regular hours of work of continuous employment is entitled to be paid on resignation from the Public Service severance pay equal to two (2) days pay for each completed 1950 regular hours of work of continuous employment to a maximum of fifty-six (56) days pay, less any period in respect of which they were granted severance pay.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING TO THE

2000-2002 PSAC Collective Agreement

The Government of Yukon

And

The Public Service Alliance of Canada

Whereas the Northern Affairs Program of the Department of Indian and Northern Affairs, Government of Canada, is scheduled to transfer to the Government of Yukon with an Effective Date of April 1, 2003;

And whereas an agreement has been entered into between the Government of Canada and the Government of Yukon known as the Devolution Transfer Agreement (DTA); Appendix “G” continued

And whereas there are a number of matters agreed to in the DTA that require the agreement of the Public Service Alliance of Canada; then,

For Northern Affairs Program devolving employees who accept positions in the Public Service Alliance of Canada bargaining unit, and pursuant to Article 59 of the Collective Agreement, the Parties agree as follows:

1) Northern Affairs Program (NAP) Indeterminate Employees (including NAP Seasonal Indeterminates)
(a) Sick Leave

As of April 1, 2003, entitlement to transfer sick leave benefits shall be determined pursuant to Article 25.05 (2)(b) of the Collective Agreement. The maximum number of sick leave credits which may be transferred is sixty-five (65) and such credits will not be decremented (depleted) against Government of Yukon accrued (earned) sick leave.

The following sections of the DTA shall apply:

3.34 As of the effective date, the YTG shall credit an Appointed NAP Indeterminate Employee with sick leave in accordance with the provisions of the YTG Collective Agreement.

3.34.1 Article 25.05 (5)(a) of the YTG Collective Agreement shall not apply to the sick leave referred to in 3.34.

3.35 As of the Effective Date, an Appointed NAP Indeterminate Employee shall be eligible to participate in the health care and long term disability plans applicable to YTG employees.

(b) Severance

For continuous service purposes, the following section of the DTA shall apply:

3.29 As of the Effective Date, the entitlement of an Appointed NAP Indeterminate Employee to receive severance pay and the amount of any such severance pay shall be determined pursuant to the YTG Collective Agreement on the basis of that employee’s combined continuous federal employment and continuous employment with the YTG after the Effective Date.

As of April 1, 2003, entitlement to receive severance pay and the amount of any such severance pay shall be determined pursuant to Article 19 of the Collective Agreement. However, notwithstanding Article 19, the following section of the DTA shall apply:

3.32 Notwithstanding 3.29 and 3.30, the amount of severance pay or cash gratuity payable in relation to an Appointed NAP Indeterminate Employee shall be no less than the amount of severance pay that would have been payable by Canada, in the same circumstances, immediately prior to the Effective Date in relation to that employee.

Section 3.33 of the DTA shall also apply, but is not applicable to continuous service earned subsequent to April 1, 2003 with the Government of Yukon.

3.33 As of the Effective Date, where an Appointed NAP Indeterminate Employee ceases to be employed by reason of termination for cause for reasons of incapacity or incompetence, but not for breach of discipline or misconduct, that employee shall be entitled to receive severance pay in an amount no less than an amount equivalent to the amount of severance pay that would have been payable by Canada, in the same circumstances, immediately prior to the Effective Date in relation to that Employee.

(c) Cash Gratuity

For continuous service purposes, the following section of the DTA shall apply:
3.30 As of the Effective Date, if an Appointed NAP Indeterminate Employee dies, the YTG shall pay to the appropriate person a cash gratuity in an amount determined pursuant to the YTG Collective Agreement on the basis of that employee’s combined continuous federal employment and continuous employment with the YTG after the Effective Date.

As of April 1, 2003, entitlement to a cash gratuity and the amount of any such cash gratuity shall be determined pursuant to Article 39 of the Collective Agreement. However, notwithstanding Article 39, the following section of the DTA shall also apply:

3.32 Notwithstanding 3.29 and 3.30, the amount of severance pay or cash gratuity payable in relation to an Appointed NAP Indeterminate Employee shall be no less than the amount of severance pay that would have been payable by Canada, in the same circumstances, immediately prior to the Effective Date in relation to that employee.

(d) Vacation Leave

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING "B"

RE: STAFF ACCOMMODATION

The following provisions shall apply only to regular employees:

Rental Increases:

Before introducing a rental increase, the Employer will give each employee so affected at least three (3) month’s advance notice of the effective date of the increase. The maximum percentage increase in rent for any 12-month period shall not exceed the percentage increase negotiated on the salary grid for that 12-month period.

Forced Transfer to New Staff Accommodation:

Where the Yukon Housing Corporation replaces an existing staff unit of accommodation with a new unit of accommodation and the employee is required to transfer to the new unit of accommodation because their old staff accommodation has been disposed of or deleted from the Corporation's housing stock, the following conditions will apply:

The employee, where practicable, will receive six (6) months advance notice of the Yukon Housing Corporation's intention to replace or abolish their current staff accommodation and to build or provide new staff accommodation to replace the unit to be disposed of.

First Stage:

Upon the employee's occupancy of the new unit of accommodation, the employee shall pay their previous rent and the costs of their own utilities (fuel and electricity) for a period of twelve (12) consecutive months from the date of the occupancy of the new unit of accommodation, subject to the rental increase mentioned in paragraph one, and

Second Stage:

For the next twelve (12) consecutive months, the employee shall pay the assigned comparative market rent for the new staff unit of accommodation less fifty dollars ($50.00) per month and the cost of their own utilities (fuel and electricity), and

Third Stage:

For the next twelve (12) consecutive months, the employee shall pay the assigned comparative market rent established for the new staff unit of accommodation less twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per month and the cost of their own utilities (fuel and electricity), and thereafter

Final Stage:

The employee will pay full comparative market rent and the cost of their own utilities for the unit of accommodation they occupy.

Transferred from One Community to another at Employer’s Direction:
Where the Department transfers an employee from one community to another and the employee is required to occupy a different unit of accommodation, the employee shall be protected at their former rent, subject to the rental increase mentioned in paragraph one, until such time as their former accommodation is replaced by a new staff unit of accommodation, and the employee would have been subject to the phase-in program for comparative market rent due to a forced transfer. The employee will then proceed to be phased into comparative market rent for the unit they now occupy, in accordance with the above four stages.

Other alternating rotational block schedules would be considered by the Employer, subject to operational requirements and agreement of both rotational partners.

Changing the Rotation

If one employee leaves the rotation agreement, the Employer will make all efforts to recruit into the vacant position. If recruitment to fill the vacant rotation is unsuccessful after twelve (12) months due to the current length of the rotation, then the Employer may provide written notice to change the rotation. For clarity, employees are not expected to assume a full-time position in the event their rotational partner leaves the rotation.

2. With reasonable written notice, the Employer has the ability to change the duration of rotational blocks.

3. Employees may request to change their rotational blocks by signed written request to the Employer. Both rotational partners must be in agreement and provide at least one full rotation’s notice to the Employer. The rotational blocks may not be changed without the approval of the Employer.

6. Employees in part-time rotational positions who work one (1) month or more of continuous extra hours may request that their FTE be temporarily increased during this time.

Transportation and Accommodation

1. Flights would be paid by Community Nursing to and from the closest airport to the employees’ home. Home is determined by the employee’s Canadian driver’s license or for non-Canadian citizens it would be the closest city to point of entry to Canada.

2. Travel is pre-arranged by Community Nursing from the closest airport to home to work site. Any costs associated with changes to travel will be borne by the employee, unless the change is requested by the Employer.

3. Travel time to and from the employee’s home to the employee’s community headquarters will be paid up to a maximum of seven and one half (7.5) hours. The employee would not be eligible for travel per diems. This does not apply to the Whitehorse based Float positions, as their headquarters area is Whitehorse.

4. Employees will be eligible to stay in Community Nursing’s Crocus Ridge Suite at no charge when travelling through Whitehorse for rotational changes if a suite is available. If no suite is available, they shall be reimbursed for the rate of one (1) standard hotel room. When travelling through Whitehorse for rotational changes, employees will be eligible for reimbursement for dinner and/or breakfast if applicable.

5. Employees, whose community headquarters are outside of Whitehorse, that require a ride from Community Nursing to their community are required to travel during business hours in a timeframe arranged by the branch, depending on travel specifics, this may require the employee to overnight in Whitehorse upon arrival.

6. For Whitehorse based Float positions employees are entitled to the appropriate per diems as outlined in the Travel Directive for travel days to the community. Employees are expected to travel during business hours. If the employee is in the community for less than five (5) days, they are entitled to full per-diems. Continuity of Care

1. Each employee would be required to work one (1) day (seven and one half (7.5) hours) of extra hours at the end of each rotation to provide a hand over to their rotational partner. A formal, written handover document, using the template provided by the Employer, will be completed by the outgoing Party and will be reviewed and discussed with the incoming Party at every transition.

2. All efforts will be made to provide transient accommodation for one of the nurses during the changeover, however if there is none available and there is more than one (1) bedroom in the employee’s shared accommodation then the two (2) employees would be expected to share housing during this regular change over period.

3. To ensure continuity in a community, if more than one (1) position in a community is shared then the rotations cannot be scheduled to change over at the same time.

This Letter of Understanding will be independently reviewed six (6) months prior to the expiry of the new Collective Agreement to assess its effectiveness on recruitment and retention of Primary Health Care Nurses.
