Email from YNPN City

Dear <First Name>,

Welcome to YNPN City! We're so excited that you've decided to join City's premier organization for young nonprofit professionals.

Now that you're a member, you can access our member directory to find other nonprofiteers in our community. You should also join us at one of our upcoming events.

YNPN City is part of a national network of more than 40 YNPN chapters. As part of your YNPN City membership, you'll be connected to the national YNPN movement. Look for their newsletter in a few weeks and check out their site to learn more about the work YNPN does across the country.

If you have any questions about your membership or YNPN City, please don't hesitate to get in touch. We look forward to seeing you at an event soon!

Sincerely,

Jane Cityresident
YNPN City Membership Chair

It's a good idea to welcome members and provide them with clear next steps you'd like them to take (sign up for events, update their site bio, etc.)

Brief reminder to your members that they'll be connected with YNPN National

Membership Confirmation Email from YNPN National

Dear <First Name>,

Congratulations on joining YNPN City!

You may know that YNPN City is part of a national network of more than 40 chapters. As part of your YNPN City membership, you're now connected to the national YNPN movement and tens of thousands of other young nonprofit professionals across the country.

Once a month we'll send you a newsletter with information about what's happening across the YNPN network to connect you with resources, people, and ideas to help you become an even more effective social change agent. We'll also be in touch a few other times a year with special information and opportunities we think you'll be interested in.

Check out our site to learn more about YNPN and our work across the country. You can also set up a profile on our site so that other members can locate you in our member directory.

If you prefer not to be connected to the YNPN national organization, no problem! You can unsubscribe below. Unsubscribing from the YNPN national organization does not effect your membership in YNPN City.

Note that explains that unsubscribing from national communications will not affect their local membership

We're so excited to have you on our team as we work to build a diverse and powerful social sector!

Sincerely,

Trish Tchume
National Director of YNPN

You're receiving this email from YNPN because you joined a local YNPN chapter. If you prefer not to be contacted by the YNPN national organization, unsubscribe here. Unsubscribing from YNPN's national communications does not effect your membership in your local chapter.

Yes, hook me up!
No, thank you

This opt-in question allows us to share member information with local chapters and it gives them a heads up to expect an email from you.

We'll be passing along this information to individual chapters on a regular basis so that you can reach out to people who signed up for membership via the National site.

If there isn't yet a chapter in their area, we'll keep their information and preference on file in case a chapter starts in their area in the future.

Invest in emerging leadership: Donate to YNPN

Membership in YNPN is free because we want this movement to be accessible to everyone. However, we do need the financial support of members and donors to make our work possible.

If you have the means, making a financial investment in YNPN is a critical way that you can help us build a diverse and powerful social sector. Invest in YNPN and thousands of emerging leaders today!
