In many Ohio communities, it is easier to find a grape soda than grapes. Millions of people around the country—many of them children—don’t have access to the affordable, healthy food that our bodies need to stay well. Related efforts to increase access to healthy foods in Ohio can create jobs and revitalize state’s economy, too.

Healthy Foods in Ohio

Ohio residents deserve a chance to choose healthy foods!

Key findings from a statewide telephone survey of 600 registered voters in Ohio, including 240 cell phone respondents. December 2016