

YORK REGION NATURE COLLABORATIVE

Who We Are

We are a collaborative of early year's organizations and associations committed to improving access to nature programs for people of all ages. While the collaborative was founded in York Region, membership and events are open to all interested educators, parents, and families.

Our Mission

To empower the early learning communities of York Region to engage meaningfully with nature on a daily basis.

YRNC Highlights

Since our initial launch in 2014, the YRNC has provided nature based programming to families in York Region and beyond through our annual free Family Adventure Walk in the Forest at the Kortright Centre for Conservation. As well, the YRNC has successfully facilitated Professional Development nature workshops for Early Year Educators with topics including Risky Play, Nature Connection, Play and Nature, the Pedagogy of Play, Place Based Learning and more.

We are looking to expand our reach, by partnering with your organization to bring nature back into the lives of young children.
